All documents and communications (from any time period) relating to the lighting of the water tower during the month of June 2024. As a reminder, emails, text messages, and other electronic messages, whether on personal or city devices or personal or city email addresses or phone numbers, regarding city business must be produced in response to PRA requests. I am aware of existing public records responsive to this request from councilmember Carol Pirsztuk; documents and communications from all councilmembers, Department of Public Works staff, and other city personnel involved in decisions and execution of the lighting of the water tower should be included in the city's response to this request. Please note I have requested a copy of responsive documents via email. Please contact me before incurring more than $20 in photocopy charges.
